WHERE THE WILD WAVES WHISTLE.

Funny expression; waves mean more than they whistle but at Haleiwa everything is different. You secure better service than in town and you sleep in a comfortable room that is proof against mosquitoes. The cuisine, the climate, the verandas and everything connected with the hotel, including the service, is the best in the islands. Manager Biggood has a standard of excellence which every employee of the hotel must not get under. It is worth a visit to see how like a clock it works.

LLOYDS BETS NINE TO ONE AGAINST BRYAN

NEW YORK, July 16.—Lloyd's of London, the underwriting firm, has accepted a new risk during the last few days. The firm has been writing policies on the election of William J. Bryan. It has placed over $500,000 worth in the Wall-street district since Tuesday. The rate is 10 per cent. Policies have been taken out mainly by brokers and financiers who are long on the market and who are anxious to hedge against a smash in stocks in the event of Bryan's election. In other words, at the 10 per cent rate, the policy holder has bet, say $10,000 against $100,000 that Bryan will be elected. The only difference is that, in either event, Lloyd's will be $10,000 thus making the odds against Bryan 9 to 1.

Bertschmann & Maloy, insurance brokers of 16 Exchange place, said today they did a business of $445,000 in one day and have applications for $1,000,000 more, for which they were awaiting Lloyd's confirmation.

NEW YORK, July 17.—So great was the demand today for anti-Bryan insurance that brokers representing Lloyd's kept the cable hot placing commissions with London underwriters. It is estimated that nearly $2,000,000 of these risks have now been assumed by Lloyd's with the result that today the rate was increased to 12 guineas, which is equivalent to about 12 1-2 per cent. Until Thursday night it was 10 per cent.

All classes of business men were among the applicants for insurance today. A New England shoe manufacturer closed a policy of $200,000 at 12 guineas premium. Brokers and speculators hedged against the market commitments to the extent of their possible loss, while a number of sporting men thought the odds of 9 to 1 which prevailed on Thursday were sufficiently attractive to place large wagers. Many of them balked, however, at paying today's prices.

BOIL YOUR NUUANU WATER

All those drawing water from the Nuuanu reservoir are cautioned to boil the fluid before using it for drinking purposes. This warning was given out by Superintendent of Public Works Marston Campbell this morning, in speaking of the matter, he said:

"I do not want to create any scare and there should be none, but on account of the situation which exists at the Nuuanu dam I have decided that it was best to take this course. There is not a drop of water in either No. 2 or No. 3 reservoir, and we have been M. M. Johnson, Mrs. M. M. Johnson, Mrs. A. LeBreton, Mrs. M. M. LeBreton, Mrs. R. W. McNeely, Mrs. J. R. McKeldin, Mrs. J. H. Merriam, L. C. Mowry, Mrs. H. C. Mustin, Mrs. R. F. Nicholson, E. H. Parrish, Mrs. E. F. Qualtrough, Mrs. W. H. H. Southerland, Miss Southerland, Miss Mary Southerland, Miss M. E. Sullivan, Mrs. Dion Williams.

poena were Officers Fred Lauke and Kepinda. It was impossible to find out what case they were present to testify in regard to but it seems likely that fight which took place in the police station between ex-Officer Reeves and the son of the County Sheriff may be investigated.

In speaking of the matter this morning one attorney laughed at the idea. He suggested that in trouble of that kind a shingle carefully applied to both, in the place which nature intended, would be about all the consideration which the case deserved.

TWO VACANCIES ON THE BENCH

the vote of the Bar Association in his favor. In the present instance for such charges to have been made and substantiated against Kepikal is a pretty hard blow to the Governor.

"H. P. Baldwin has been behind Kepikal all the time, but he has been almost alone in his fight on Maui, even his sons, Frank and Sam Baldwin being lukewarm when it came to supporting of the judge. Of course Coelho and the other members of that political ring have been with Kepikal, but that was only to be expected. Even they are falling away at present and Kepikal is being left alone to fight his own battles.

"The hard proposition comes when one tries to select men who are available for the position of judge. On Kauai there are only two lawyers who would be able to fill the position. One of these is Charles S. Dole, the district magistrate at Lihue, and the other is Sam Kaeo, the Kauai county attorney. I am not sure whether Dole has recovered enough from his recent illness to feel that he could take the position on account of the amount of work which it will entail.

"There is one man in this city who would make a first-class judge for Kauai if he could be prevailed on to accept the position. That is M. F. Prosser, the former deputy attorney general, who lived on Kauai before coming down here. I rather doubt if he would leave his present situation as a member of the firm of Kinney, Prosser & Marx.

"There are three other first-class men whom I might mention, any one of whom would make an excellent judge, but all of whom would probably decline. These are W. L. Whitney, former district magistrate in this city and now in the attorney general's department; C. F. Clements, of the firm of Thompson & Clements, and R. A. Anderson, of the firm of Kinney, Prosser & Marx. Wade Warren Thayer would make a good judge, but I do not think he would give up his practice and he is of the wrong political brand.

"Of the men for the Kauai position I have heard Judge Kingsbury mentioned several times, but no one can exactly place him. Judge Edging is also said to be an aspirant but I do not believe that he has any great chance to get the position.

"The trouble comes from the fact that most of the best men whom we have are not available on account of the fact that they can earn more money practicing law than they can on the bench."

PILIKIA OVER ALEWA HEIGHTS

SOME OF THOSE WHO BOUGHT LOTS HAVE NOT DONE NECESSARY CLEARING.

The Alewa lots which were sold a year ago today are causing some trouble for one or two of the owners. According to the agreement which was made they were to be cleared within a year and in several cases this work has not even been commenced. In all probability Land Commissioner Pratt will cancel the agreements of those who have been so dilatory and others will have a chance to buy.

When asked what he was going to do about the matter this morning Mr. Pratt was a little indefinite. He stated that he had not yet made an inspection of the lots and did not know whether the purchasers had failed to live up to their bargains or not. When that had been done he stated that he would be ready to take action.
